"REDNECK COW CAMP"

CCYA National Board – Luke Marshall, Innisfail, AB; Kirstin Sparrow, Vanscoy, SK; Russell Gallelli, Vice-President, Crossfield, AB; Autumn Jackson, Inglis, MB; Brandon Sparrow, Treasurer, Vanscoy, SK; Candace Alexander, Secretary, Cargill, ON; Michael Hunter, President, Roblin, MB; Michael Hogg, Roseneath, ON

The most highly anticipated event of many youth's summer is the annual Canadian Charolais Youth Association Conference and Show and this year's event was not a disappointment. Youth from Alberta through Ontario gathered in Dauphin, Manitoba, to participate in the well-organized, smoothly run event hosted by Haylan and Autumn Jackson, Inglis; Michael and Kristi Hunter, Roblin; Adam Hopcraft, Glenboro and Rachael Verwey, Portage la Prairie.

The week started with educational seminars and Redneck Cow Camp

Olympics. This opening mixer is always organized by the national board and has a history of getting the youth in the right frame of mind for the week. Teams were made and everyone participated in the fun involving all of the members of each team. Getting a little wet or sticky was certainly not a deterrent as youth were syruded and strawed, walked in water logged boots and dressed for a redneck family portrait. Laughter was a high priority and participation not competition was the main focus of the event. By the time the evening was over, the new kids were part of the group and the first day of camp jitters were replaced with laughs and anticipation for the upcoming week.

As the youth plan and organize the event, it falls on the parents to see that the plans are carried out enabling all to participate. This year was no exception, as parents held calves for judging, served snacks, opened gates, timed events and assisted wherever needed. The group of youth were as always, on time for their events and needed no prompting to be where they needed to be. No parent participation is allowed within the barn or the events and this is what makes the event special for the youth. It allows them the opportunity to learn from other kids in a variety of ways. This is a new experience for many youth who have never attended a cattle event without the parental "assistance" before. It can instill a new sense of responsibility and ownership in the business.

For youth attending from other purebred breeds, it is always good to hear the Charolais event is the best. It is the only one that mixes education and fun and breaks the provincial and individual barriers of competition, excluding all parent participation. A lot of effort goes into the CCYA event to make sure the youth interact beyond borders and have a lot of fun and it's good to get the validation that we're on the right track from others stepping into the event.

The Keep and Cull Competition was hosted at Hans and Mary Myhre's DH Charolais farm. Together with Ernie and Al Bayduza, Breezy Dawn Charolais; Jack and Lori Bremner, Bremner Charolais and Vince and Susan Wilkinson, Cadillac Ranch. They hosted an abundant, delicious barbecue supper for the participants and their families and displayed cattle for judging of the competition.

One evening was spent playing a non-competitive version of softball that included CCYA members and parents. Somehow, it managed to become competitive and the rivalries created amusement for those watching. The evening ended with a rousing game of "Mount Your Camel", which seems to be an emerging annual competition at the event. Laughter was a major part of the event as the 'mounts' changed and the racing ensued.

A new national board was elected with Michael Hunter, Roblin, Manitoba, as president; Russell Gallelli, Crossfield, Alberta, as vice-president; Brandon Sparrow, Vanscoy, Saskatchewan, as treasurer and Candace Alexander, Cargill, Ontario, as secretary. Board members include Luke Marshall, Innisfail, Alberta; Kirstin Sparrow, Vanscoy, Saskatchewan; Autumn Jackson, Inglis, Manitoba and Michael Hogg, Roseneath, Ontario.

Jack Bremner received the 2010 CCYA Honouree Award for his support and assistance with two conferences in Dauphin.

The event closed with the awards banquet and dance which was enjoyed by all. The youth danced until the music stopped. It is always wonderful to see the dancing cross age barriers and dance genres by all attending.

Next year's event will be hosted by the Saskatchewan Charolais Youth Association in Saskatoon. If you have never attended, start making plans now – it may be the highlight of your summer as well.

Jack Bremner received the 2010 CCYA Honouree Award from Marshall McDonald

CCYA Alumni Jimmy Hunter and Marshall McDonald very skillfully served as barn bosses

Bob & Elaine Digby, Rolling D Charolais, purchased a quilt in the live auction made by their granddaughter Terinda Holopina

Chris Poley and Ted Serhienko presented the CCYA National Board, represented by President Brandon Sparrow a $3,030.06 cheque from the T Bar Invitation Golf Tournament

Two of the four American Jr Charolais members (Troy Bertsche and Nathan Glassman) attending the conference won the 'Mount Your Camel' competition
